

Aims and Objectives

As a customer of Gower Business Systems you can expect our staff to adhere to:

- Providing professional advice to customers on all aspects of design and supply of computer applications & systems.
- Providing customers with software which is value for money and fit for purpose.
- Gower Business Systems technical service staff trained to a standard where they can provide an efficient and competent service.
- Providing a Help facility to assist customers with all aspects of the systems supplied.
- Responding to all service requests within customers' agreed timescales.
- Ensuring that customers receive the best possible after sales care.
- To provide profitable trading results resulting in stability for all.